our story

When Jess Khun and Katie Smyth met in a 2018 elevator pitch competition, they knew they had two things in common:

a love for the central coast and a passion for the arts. Together, they came up with Green Blanket: a brick and mortar hub for independent artists to show off their greatest works.

come for a visit!

In our store, you'll find a variety of pieces: unique vintage clothing, custom work from local artists, and ethically manufactured goods; the proceeds of which are invested back into our beautiful Central Coast community!

work with us!

Green Blanket is a place for all kinds of local collaborators! If you would like to work with us as an artist or vendor, contact one of our managers or give the store a call! We'll be happy to consult!
